

THE GOODS

SPRING
SUMMER 2021

 DAVID

DESK ACCESSORIES: DOY

welcome

With lockdown restrictions eliminating gift fairs and in-store visits, we had to get creative with ways to present our new lines and latest products. As a result, we've produced our first ever buyers' guide, The Goods.

Inside The Goods you'll find something for everyone. We highlight the hottest colour trends (keep an eye out for the 2021 colour pair of the year and rainbows galore) and consumer trends (shopping for home schoolers and pet parents). We also feature many products designed for working from home and socializing virtually.

As stay-at-home orders continue, many product categories are booming. For example, the puzzle phenomenon continues to grow, especially for singles and seniors. Fans of the Netflix series, The Queen's Gambit, are scrambling to find an affordable chess set. And consumers continue to embrace sending cards in the mail.

So get ready to be inspired with our showcase of all that's neat, new and nifty in this premiere issue of The Goods.

COVER: CREATIVE CO-OP

UGH! With most everyone sporting a face mask, it's hard to interpret what a person's thinking when you can't see the expression on their face. That's why we love this trinket tray from Karma, expressing how we feel about not seeing loved ones in person.

INTRODUCING... NEW LINES

Discover the most recent brand introductions we've sourced from across North America and around the world. These new brands offer outstanding products and satisfy growing consumer demand for puzzles, greeting cards, self-care rituals, and of course, gifting.

DOIIY

Be among the first retailers to offer this renowned Barcelona-based brand to Canadians. As fun as they are functional, the DOIIY (pronounced like "boy") collection of on-trend fashion and home accessories are unique, at times unconventional and designed to bring on a smile or cheer someone up.

SHADOWBOX

PIECEWORK PUZZLES

With vivid photography and unique themes, Piecework Puzzles is an ultra-hip contemporary puzzle brand. This female-founded company is dedicated to creating ways to spend quality time indoors. They've even created a Spotify playlist for each puzzle!

YOUNGSON

BROKEN TOP CANDLE COMPANY

For affordable, organic luxury, look to Broken Top Candle Company, makers of sustainable and eco-conscious goods for bath, body and home. With scents for men and women, all products are vegan and free of gluten, with recyclable packaging.

SHADOWBOX

SCOTTISH FINE SOAPS

Family-owned Scottish Fine Soaps sources ingredients from Scotland and all around the world to produce bath and beauty collections that look, feel and smell fantastic. Discover classic products with a contemporary twist, such as Hashtag and Whisky Cocktail soaps.

SHADOWBOX

NEW YORK PUZZLE COMPANY

From a something-for-everyone line of puzzles, New York Puzzle Company has expanded with playing cards, mugs and totes. There are so many collections to choose from: The New Yorker, Vogue, National Geographic, Harry Potter, Peter Rabbit and more.

SHADOWBOX

WRENDALE DESIGNS

Inspired by the British countryside, Wrendale gifts and cards feature beautiful designs by artist Hannah Dale. Her soft brushwork, subtle colours and paint splatters make Wrendale Designs instantly recognizable on stationery, scarves and seasonal giftware.

LAUNCHING...
Spruce

We are super excited to announce a third division, SPRUCE – your new go-to source for the latest and greatest goods for the home.

RETAILER SPOTLIGHT

Bradshaws

ABOUT THE STORE

Located in Stratford, Ontario, Bradshaws is almost as renowned as the town's Shakespeare Festival. As one of Canada's oldest independent retail stores, it opened in 1895 and has persevered through the challenges of the Spanish flu, the Great Depression, two World Wars and now, Coronavirus.

ABOUT THE OWNERS

Well ahead of the trending mass exodus from big cities to more rural locales, Carrie Wreford, along with her husband Jeremy took a leap of faith and moved from Toronto to Stratford back in 2006 to take over Bradshaws, which has been owned and operated by Jeremy's family for three generations.

ABOUT THE PAST YEAR

Carrie not only excels at all things retail, she has with tireless grit and determination transformed the ever-changing restrictions for traditional in-store shopping into an opportunity to embrace ecommerce and digital marketing. She's mastered Instagram, maintains a blog, produces video content and, most recently, produced Bradshaw's first-ever digital magazine.

www.bradshaws.ca

CARRIE'S NEW FAVOURITES

This spring, Carrie is filling the store with all things fruity, floral and fun.

Carrie predicts the new Tried & True Collection: Meadow Thistle, Lush Lily and Wild Rose candles and reed diffusers to be an instant hit with customers.
ILLUME

Take your pick! Amuseables fruits are just as fun for wee ones as they are for a whimsical décor element in the kitchen.
JELLYCAT

Fruit never looked so sexy in the 1000-piece 'Forbidden Fruit' Puzzle, showcasing a juicy papaya and other exotic pleasures.
PIECEWORK PUZZLES

In a reusable metal milk canister, Au Lait Milk Bath Powder is Carrie's latest go-to for a soak in the tub after a long day in the store.
SCOTTISH FINE SOAPS

Carrie relies on the fresh clean scent of Lemon Basil Foaming Hand Soap to wash away food odours while cooking.
MICHEL DESIGN WORKS

From head-to-toe, home décor showcasing body parts is a hot trend and this ceramic Namaste Vase is a terrific example.
DOITY

BLOOMINGVILLE'S DÉCOR TRENDS

This best-selling brand from Denmark brings together Nordic chic and global influences with brilliant success. Having previewed their latest lookbooks and new products, it's clear that Bloomingville is on the forefront of design trends. While a few of their latest pieces can instantly update a room – a well-merchandised selection can transform your store into a shopping destination.

CHAIN LINKS

Set big heavy links on a stack of coffee table books as a decorative element or put to use as a paperweight or doorstop.

REACTIVE GLAZE

Showing up on the trendiest tablescapes, the subtle blurring of one ceramic glaze colour into another makes each piece truly one of a kind.

OVERSIZED BEADS

A home stager's go-to: this wood bead garland in neutral tones instantly updates a space, whether draped casually along a mantle or hanging from a doorknob.

OMBRE WOOD

This trend has made its way from the runway to the countertop. Serving boards in ombre wood are definitely noteworthy.

RUSTIC RELICS

From ancient ruins to modern spaces! Ephemera reminiscent of finds from archaeological digs substitute for bringing home travel treasures.

HAND-STITCHED DETAILS

From hand-sewn embroidery to rustic reeds woven through ceramics, these intricate details add an artisanal feel.

RICH TEXTURES

Sticking to seasonless colours and opting for uniquely textured fabrics is a smart choice for anyone with limited storage space.

PUNCHED METAL WORK

First with laser-cut leather and other fabrics, this already hot fashion trend moves into the home with illuminating lanterns.

CONTRASTING FINISHES

More than ever, people are paying attention to the surface finishes of everything from matte dishes to high-gloss vessels.

COLOUR PAIR OF THE YEAR

From fashion accessories to home décor, we've got plenty of goods in Pantone's Colour of the Year. For 2021, the world-renowned colour trend forecaster chose not one, but two hues – Ultimate Gray is grounding, while Illuminating Yellow is about as cheery as can be.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR... AND STOCK YOUR STORE

With so many special occasions, there's always a reason to shop!

MARCH 17 ST. PATRICK'S DAY

If going to the local Irish pub isn't an option, celebrate the luck of the Irish chilling at home with this 1000-piece Relax With Guinness jigsaw puzzle from New York Puzzle Company.

MARCH 20 INTERNATIONAL DAY OF HAPPINESS

Last March lockdowns began. A year later, simple sources of pure joy, such as Karma's Happy trinket tray are more important than ever to give – and receive.

MARCH 27 EARTH HOUR

Encourage customers to turn out all lights at 8:30 pm for some tranquil tub time. Help transform their bathroom into a spa-like sanctuary with the Kikkerland Tub Tray, candles and other essentials to unwind and relax for an hour.

APRIL 4 EASTER SUNDAY

One of our favourite collections from Michel Design Works, the Bunny Toile features products for every room in the home: hand soap, hand and body lotion, room spray, soy candles, melamine tableware and more.

APRIL 22 EARTH DAY

A gift to Mother Earth, the Plant The Planet: Blue Spruce Tree Kits support Modern Sprout's reforestation movement. For every kit purchased, a second tree is planted.

MAY 9 MOTHER'S DAY

Perfect for new moms, the Mama necklace is one of several of Lucky Feather's designed-for-mom pieces of jewellery. Each beautifully packaged for easy gifting and shipping.

MAY 16 NATIONAL CAESAR DAY

Celebrate Canada's cocktail, the Caesar, with a tasty twist from Salt Spring Kitchen Co.: use their signature Candied Jalapenos as a garnish.

MAY 24 VICTORIA DAY

You grill, girl! Women who love getting out of the kitchen and onto the back deck to barbecue will flip over a pair of Living Royal's Grill Master socks.

JUNE 20 FATHER'S DAY

For well-groomed dads who appreciate practical presents, the Way Of Will Shave Gift Set features Pre-Shave Oil, After Shave Splash and Beard Oil – all made with 100% natural ingredients.

JULY 1 CANADA DAY

Canadians love to show off their patriot pride. Kay Dee's new Oh Canada! Collection of tea towels and oven mitts is an easy way to add a little canuck chic to any kitchen.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The more time people spend at home, the more they want to shop! We've got best-selling classics and modern must haves for every home, sweet home.
