welcome

Retailing in the time of COVID-19 is no longer about “what doesn’t break you makes you stronger.” Instead, after two years of lockdowns, ever-changing capacity restrictions, curbside shopping, etc., we think, “Wow! You’re freaking amazing!”

We can definitely relate to your challenging retail landscape. Barely a month ago, we were gearing up for our most extensive ever presence at the Toronto Gift + Home Market – to showcase 40 new lines we have acquired since the start of COVID! – only for it to be cancelled. It literally feels like we’ve gone from gift shows to shit show.

So we’ve scoured tens of thousands of pages of the latest catalogues, product photos and other assets to showcase the most noteworthy goods, while introducing new colours, themes and trends you’ll want to showcase in the coming months.

While we can’t wait to see you in person at gift shows, we invite you to browse through this Buyer’s Guide. We’ve curated unique and themed ideas for merchandising products from multiple lines in your store windows and displays, as well as on your website and social media feeds.

SH*T SELLS

It’s no surprise so many snarky yet cleverly designed goods make use of the expression “shit show.” Discover it on everything from bookmarks and trinket trays to these paper beverage napkins from Paperproducts Design.

So here's a proposal – say “I Do” to filling your store with unique goods for all types of weddings – from casual backyard ceremonies to larger, more formal ones.

KARMA - WIT & WHIMSY

Love and marriage, love and marriage, go together like a horse and carriage. A successful marriage requires falling in love many times ways with the same person. Men have a pierced ear are better prepared for marriage. They've experienced pain and bought a ring. Don't marry the person you think you can live with, marry the person you think you can't live without. Marriage, ultimately, is the practice of becoming passionate friends. Never go to bed angry, stay up and fight. If you are going to argue, argue naked. Marriages are made in heaven, but so are thunder, lightning, tornadoes and old along with me the be. When you think the from your marriage, a spark only lasts lights a fire and which burns down we are the hottest part of the fire which burns the long the fire alive. How change, it can change due to two little
